

Do you love me?

I've been waiting Hesitating when I see you relating to a guy who should be me

But now, when I try, I can find all the moments left behind
How 'bout you? Is it true
that you're not the hoping kind?
Need to know, if I'm wrong about you when I doubt you

Do you love me?
Do you care?
Have we something
we can share?

I've been dating for the sake of missing you Contemplating, to figure out what I can do

And now, when I try, I can find
all the moments left behind
How 'bout you? Is it true
that you're not the hoping kind?
Need to know, if I'm wrong about you when I doubt you

Do you love me?
Do you care?
Have we something
we can share?

And now, when I try, I can find
all the things we left behind
How 'bout you? Is it true that you're not the hurting kind?
Need to know, if I'm wrong about you when I doubt you

Do you love me?
Do you care?
Have we something
we can share?
