

Boogie

Got to wine and dine with someone on a first-time date
But dinner took too long, my feet were shaking- could not wait
I've had this problem before
Needed to be on a flashing floor to gyrate
We were running late

Billy looked at me inquiring "why for all this haste?"
Flashing lights and driving beats, said "there's no time to waste!"
I want to boogie with you- get on the floor and boogie with you!

Boogie woogie oogie with you

We were out there shaking, rocking, rolling on the floor
Sweat was pouring off him he said "I can't take no more!"
Told him "If you want a romance, you better learn to dance and not be a bore!"

Boogie woogie oogie with you

Should have known this guy had nothing but his two left feet
Never date a man who can't dance, even if he's sweet
Don't choose one of the few, who can't cut loose and boogie with you

Boogie woogie oogie with you
