

Important Someone

Walking to the diner and things were looking finer than they ever really looked before The sun was ever-shining and seemed to be reminding me of what a life is really for I never thought of trying the notion of denying that I'm living something oh so good I feel like I'm flying and now I am relying on me knowing that I truly could

Oh, Oh Oh, I feel like someone
Oh, Oh Oh, Important someone

I'm keeping to a promise of being very honest in a world full of much deceit Existing in a season where faith can be the reason for the goodness that we often meet I never think of losing especially when choosing how to carry on in my own way I make a point of going directions that are showing me a beacon to a better day
