

Freedom

She said we dated for oh so long
I can't be certain but something's wrong
Her words, imply she's thinking
I feel myself slowly sinking

Bartender give me a double shot
I think my chick wants to tie the knot
Oh no, I think she's crazy
Oh no no no, my mind is hazy

Oh no no I don't want to lose my freedom
Oh no no I don't want to lose my freedom

Since four o'clock I've been wide awake
I pray the whole thing's a big mistake
Oh no no no, I'm feeling queasy
Oh no no no, my life's uneasy

Oh no no I don't want to lose my freedom
Oh no no I don't want to lose my freedom

I finally faced up to my own fears
I'll look ahead to our golden years
Would you be mine forever?
I'm such a fool; she told me never

Yeah she said I don't want to lose my freedom
Yeah she said I don't want to lose my freedom
Oh she told me, she said
I don't want to lose my freedom
Oh she said, I don't want to lose my freedom
