

Their Lives

Music and words by John Doyle

Intro: G, D/F#, Em, Cadd9 (Entire 2X)

Verse→
G D/F# Em7
Alone at night, I lie
Cadd9 G D/F# Em7 Cadd9
I think about suffering souls banned from heaven and the earth
G D/F# Em7
Lost in love and life;
Cadd9
confusion runs wild
G D/F# Em7 Cadd9
Consuming a passion to be here

Chorus→
D Dsus4
And they're never gonna try to change it
D Dsus4 Cadd9 G Notes B,C,B,C
Never gonna try to rearrange it, anyway
D Dsus4
And they're never gonna face up to it
D Dsus4 Cadd9 G
Never gonna realize they blew it, anyway
G D/F# Em7 Cadd9
for all of their lives

A darkened dead-end street is what they call home
No place to hang their memories
In shoes with holes, they march
a shameful parade
Exhaustion for nothing in return

And they're never gonna try to change it
Never gonna try to rearrange it, anyway
And they're never gonna face up to it
Never gonna realize they blew it, anyway
for all of their lives

Solo Em (8measures), D, Dsus4, D, Dsus4, Cadd9, G (2X), Em(4 measures), Notes B,C,B,C

Repeat Chorus and end with Em7, D/F#, G