

Feeling No Pain

I'm thinking of the state I'm in Can feel my patience growing thin
You think that I'll turn right back Still trying to recover from your attack

Too late 'cause it's gonna take time;
by then I know that I will lose my mind Backtrack to a time when we felt nothing but a feeling of dignity

Something has happened I cannot explain
Feeling a loss while I'm feeling no pain

I'm thinking of the shape I'm in Can feel my anger rage within Just need to find peace of mind
Of the soothing nature and the settling kind

Too bad 'cause it's gonna take time to receive the comfort that I need to find So sad, unproductive day;
when I'm used to having things my own way

Something has happened I cannot explain
Feeling a loss while I'm feeling no pain

Too bad 'cause it's gonna take time;
by then I know that I will lose mind
So sad, unproductive day;
when I'm used to having things my own way

Something has happened I cannot explain
Feeling a loss while I'm feeling no pain
Feeling no pain
Feeling no pain
